Fun House
Emotional Learning Community

“A summer to discover, create, connect, and flourish.”

At Fun4house, we have envisioned an unforgettable summer experience where children are invited to explore, create, play, and grow in an atmosphere filled with joy, movement, art, meaningful connection, and purposeful learning.

An extraordinary summer designed for joyful growth.

“A Summer to Enjoy and Grow”

Far More Than a Vacation

At Fun4house, we have created a one-of-a-kind summer experience where children enjoy six inspiring weeks filled with joy, exploration, art, movement, play, and meaningful learning.

Here, summer is more than something to enjoy. It becomes an opportunity to grow in confidence, express individuality, strengthen abilities, discover new talents, build friendships, and learn to live more thoughtfully with others.

Here, summer is shaped by purpose, well-being, meaning, and joy

Why Choose Fun4house?

A thoughtfully designed experience shaped by care, expertise, and a strong educational foundation.

At Fun4house, we believe a truly meaningful summer can transform far more than free time.

That is why we offer an experience shaped by the leadership of Bibiana Rubio Saavedra, PhD, whose more than 38 years of experience in education and early childhood bring families a sense of trust, warmth, and peace of mind.

Our camp brings together genuine care, age-appropriate guidance, social-emotional development, meaningful learning, innovative learning corners, and a deeply memorable experience for every child.

An experience families can trust and children will carry with them.

General Information

Everything You Need to Know.

Over the course of six weeks, children will enjoy meaningful experiences in spaces thoughtfully designed for each stage of development.

Through artistic, sensory, movement-based, scientific, expressive, and community-centered learning corners, each day becomes an opportunity to play, explore, create, and connect.

An Experience Designed for Every Stage.

Growing together, while honoring each moment of development.

At Fun4house, we recognize that every stage of childhood has its own rhythm, interests, and ways of discovering the world.

That is why we organize the experience by age, offering each group proposals that reflect their needs, abilities, and stage of development.

In this way, every child finds challenges, languages, and spaces that strengthen autonomy, confidence, self-expression, and connection with others.

Nest Explorers.

Ages 2 to 4.

A thoughtfully designed experience for children in an essential stage of early discovery.

Through play, sensory exploration, movement, language, and affectionate connection, children strengthen their sense of security, their curiosity, and their joy in learning.

Each experience is designed to honor their rhythm, support their emotional well-being, and open pathways for exploration through the body, the senses, and the imagination.

A gentle, secure beginning filled with discovery

Hay experiencias que no solo se recuerdan: también se cantan.

This Is the Sound of Fun4house's Heart

A song that celebrates tenderness, belonging, and the joy of growing together.

The Fun4house Nest Song was born as a heartfelt expression of our identity and of everything we hope to nurture in childhood: love, care, joy, and a sense of community.

"In the Fun4house Nest"

Written by: Bibiana Rubio Saavedra, PhD.

*"In the Nest, we come to play,
to feel, to laugh, create, and sing.
With my hands and with my voice,
I discover the world around me.
Fun4house beats within the heart."*

Adventurers & Explorers.

Ages 5 to 7

A stage for imagining, questioning, playing, and expanding the world around them.

In this group, curiosity becomes the driving force behind learning. Children take part in experiences that bring together creativity, movement, expression, discovery, and collaborative work.

Each activity is designed to strengthen autonomy, wonder, self-confidence, and the ability to relate to others through joy and active participation.

Learning through play,
discovering through creativity.

Growing with Creativity, Leadership, and Purpose

Ages 8 to 10
Creative Explorers

Ages 10 to 12
Leaders & Peacebuilders

At this stage, summer becomes a space for deepening creativity, strengthening identity, and expanding the way children see themselves and others.

Children take part in experiences that bring together expression, thinking, collaboration, project creation, reflection, and a sense of community.

Here, they find opportunities to develop leadership, empathy, compassion, initiative, responsibility, and new ways of turning ideas into shared experiences.

More autonomy, more creativity,
and a deeper sense of community.

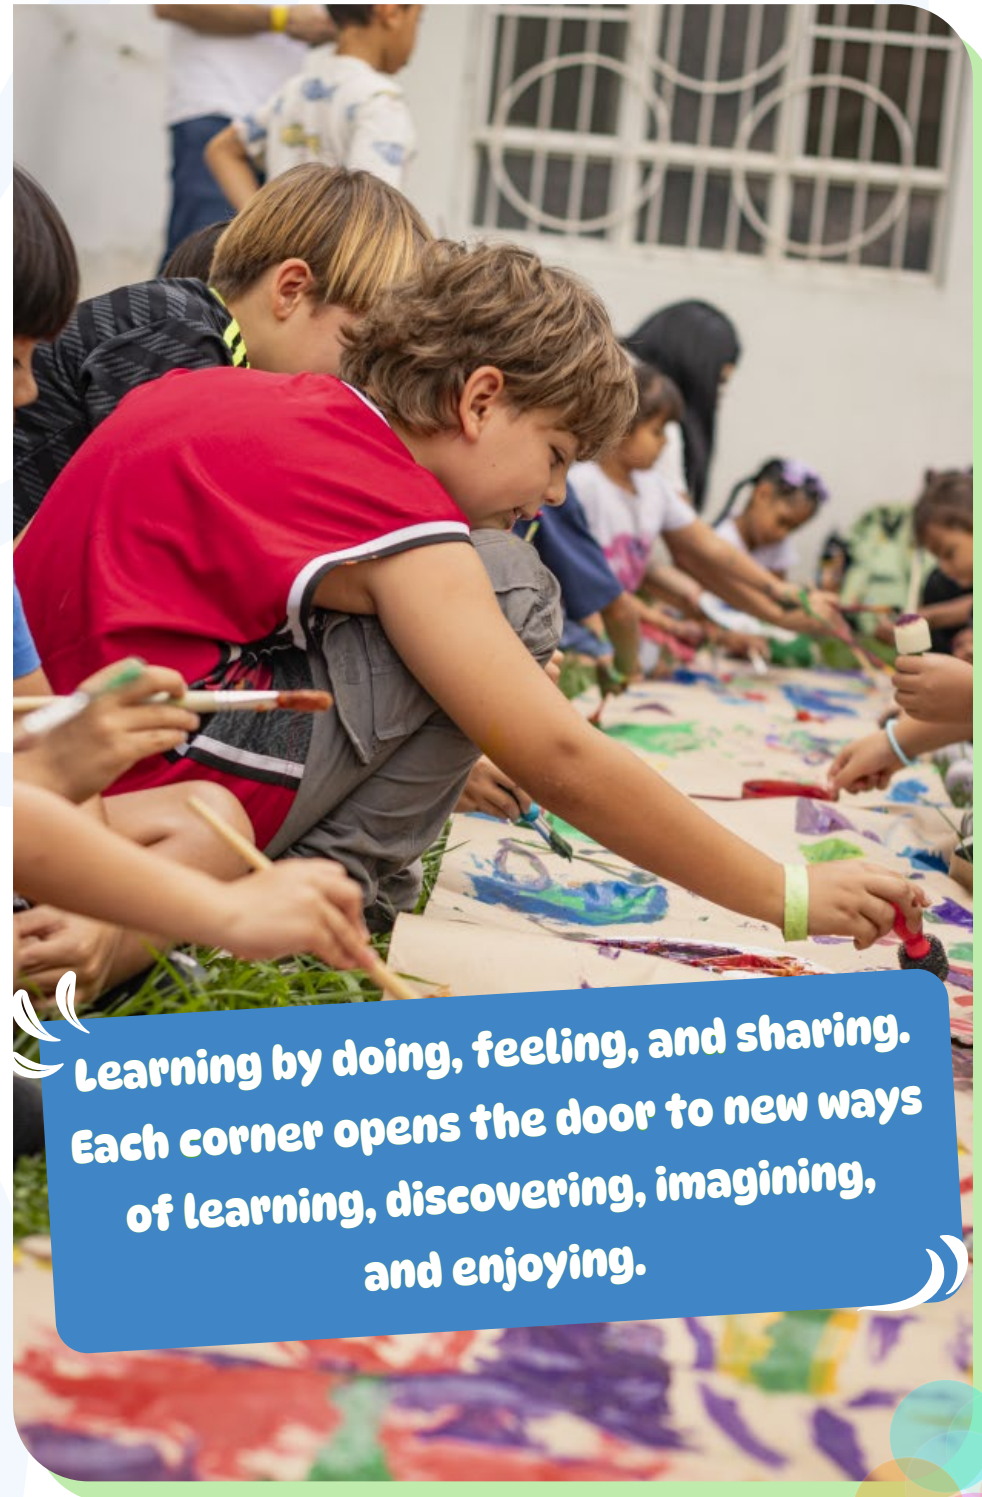

Spaces to Feel, Create, and Discover.

Environments that awaken curiosity and expand learning.

The learning and emotional corners, conceived as spaces for meaningful encounters with others, are at the heart of the Fun4house experience.

These are thoughtfully designed environments where children explore different languages of expression, develop social-emotional skills, build new understandings, and engage in meaningful experiences through art, movement, imagination, emotion, science, and community.

Each corner invites active participation, creative freedom, new discoveries, and a deeper connection with oneself, with others, and with the world around them.

Learning by doing, feeling, and sharing.
Each corner opens the door to new ways
of learning, discovering, imagining, and enjoying.

Some of Our Learning and Emotional Corners

Calm Island

A space to recognize emotions, breathe, find balance, and strengthen inner well-being.

Creative Atelier

A place to imagine, experiment, create, and transform materials and ideas.

Movement & Expression

Body-based experiences that invite children to inhabit movement with joy, coordination, and freedom.

Exploration & Discovery

Experiences designed to investigate, observe, question, and learn through curiosity.

Each Week Leaves Its Mark

Each week is designed as a meaningful experience.

At Funtastic Summer Camp 2026, we see summer as an opportunity to grow with joy, discover with purpose, and build memories that remain in the heart.

That is why each week has been thoughtfully designed as a unique experience connected to children's emotional, social, and creative development.

A Summer Shaped by Intention and Meaning

Each week opens the door to a new emotional experience.

Week 1 - Getting to Know Myself and Arriving at Funtastic Summer Camp

“I am valuable. I belong here”

Every story begins with an encounter. This week is devoted to welcome, adaptation, self-recognition, and the building of trust.

Week 2 - I Feel, Name, and Express

“My emotions have a voice”

Children explore their inner world through the body, emotions, and language. They learn to recognize what they feel and express it in healthy ways.

Week 3 - We Create Together

“I create, imagine, and transform”

Creativity becomes a bridge for imagining, building, and transforming.

This is a week for playing with ideas, materials, and shared projects.

Every meaningful summer begins by discovering who I am and how I relate to the world.

Growing also means learning to care, to share, and to celebrate

From Empathy, Love, Compassion, and Respect to Celebration

Week 4 - The Other Person Matters

“I discover, care, and belong”

An experience designed to reveal the value of empathy, compassion, respect, friendship, and mutual care.

Week 5 - My Community and My City

“We care for what we share”

Children broaden their perspective toward the collective and begin to understand that living together also means caring for shared spaces, for one another, and for the life we build together.

Week 6 - I Celebrate Who I Am and What We Built Together

“What I lived, what I learned, and what I leave behind”

The final week offers a meaningful closing to the journey. It is a time to give thanks, recognize growth, and celebrate everything that has been experienced alongside families.

Important:

The fee does not include admission tickets or any additional costs related to recreational outings. Information regarding dates, schedules, fees, and any possible changes will be shared with families in a timely manner.

Participation in these activities is voluntary and requires prior authorization from a parent or authorized caregiver. Children who do not attend the outings may remain in the summer camp activity areas.

Outings will preferably take place in the morning.

A Summer to Remember

An experience that leaves its mark

At Funtastic Summer Camp 2026, each child lives an experience designed to feel, create, discover, connect, and grow.

We hope this summer leaves a lasting imprint on their heart, on the way they relate to others, and on the way they move through the world.

More than a vacation season, we want to offer a meaningful time of well-being, expression, learning, and transformation.

A joyful, loving, enriching,
and transformative summer.
